

SOCIETY FOR THE
HISTORY of EMOTIONS

The Society for the History of Emotions (SHE) is a project of the Australian Research Council Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions. It is a professional association for scholars interested in past and present emotions as culturally and temporally situated phenomena.

SHE's aims are to:

- organise conferences, symposia and postgraduate training events to further knowledge of the history of emotions;
- provide global information, networking and collaborative opportunities for scholars of emotions;
- produce the biannual journal Emotions: History, Culture, Society (EHCS), dedicated to understanding emotions in historical, social and cultural contexts, and to exploring the role of emotion in shaping human experience, societies, cultures and environments.

Emotions: History Culture Society (EHCS) is a peer-reviewed interdisciplinary biannual journal published under the auspices of the Society for the History of Emotions.

EHCS aims to illuminate: the ways emotion is conceptualised and understood in different temporal or cultural settings, from antiquity to the present, and across the globe; the impact of emotion on human action and in processes of change; and the influence of emotional legacies from the past on current social, cultural and political practices.
