

International Children's Book Day Events

3–4 April 2018

'EMOTIONAL DISCOURSES IN CHILDREN'S LITERATURE'

A CHE sponsored scholarly symposium, including plenary sessions, papers from invited speakers and discussants.

Dates: 8.30am–5.00pm Tuesday 3 April 2018
8.30am–1.00pm Wednesday 4 April 2018

Venue: Arts Lecture Room 5, G61
Arts Building
The University of Western Australia

'READING FOR LITTLE REBELS: INTERNATIONALISM AND RADICAL WRITING FOR CHILDREN'

An Institute of Advanced Studies sponsored public lecture with Professor Kimberly Reynolds (Newcastle University, UK)

Date: 6.00–7.30pm Tuesday 3 April 2018
Venue: Fox Lecture Theatre, G59
Arts Building
The University of Western Australia

The ARC Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions (CHE) and the Institute of Advanced Studies (IAS) at The University of Western Australia (UWA) are pleased to be able to sponsor the following events to celebrate International Children's Book Day in April 2018. The events are convened by Dr Ned Curthoys (UWA).

'THE WRITER'S BALANCING ACT: ENGAGING YOUNG READERS'

A CHE sponsored public lecture with Deb Fitzpatrick (freelance editor and author)

Date: Wednesday 4 April 2018
Time: 5.30–7.00pm
Venue: Murdoch Lecture Theatre, G58
Arts Building, The University of Western Australia

For further information please contact:
Ned Curthoys at ned.curthoys@uwa.edu.au or go to historyofemotions.org.au/events