Craig Ogden studied music at UWA and is recognised worldwide as one of the most exciting artists of his generation. His many recordings for Virgin/EMI, Chandos, Nimbus, Hyperion, Sony and Classic FM have received critical acclaim. Ogden's Classic FM albums The Guitarist and Summertime both shot straight to no.1 in the UK classical chart in summer 2010 and 2011 respectively. Craig Ogden has performed concertos with all of the main UK orchestras plus many abroad and has presented on BBC Radio 3 and on ABC Classic FM (Australia). He is a Principal Lecturer in Guitar at the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester and Visiting Lecturer at the Royal College of Music in London.

This programme reveals an interest in emotional meaning and music and how this has changed across history. Works performed range from John Dowland (1563 –1626) to Ogden's own piece, Diurnal (2012), which is featured on the UWA Centenary CD, Luminosity.
